

Read, Play and Learn

Brockman Community House is passionate about education. So much so that they used their grant from Bayswater & Noranda Community Bank[®] branches to establish a Read, Play and Learn Library. This library will provide families with a library bag containing a book and a theme related toy/item on a loan system to encourage story engagement through interaction.